SUMMONS RETURN.

1833.

United States of America

District of Massachusetts To wit

Be it remembered that at a District Court of the United States for the District of Massachusetts, begun and holden at Boston within and for the District of Massachusetts on the first Tuesday of December in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two and continued by adjournment to the ~~fourth~~ fifteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three comes into Court on the said ~~fourth~~ fifteenth day of February Andrew Dunlap Esq. Attorney of the United States for the District of Massachusetts and in the name and behalf of the United States prosounds and gives said Court to understand and be informed that William Hyde of Boston in the said District Bookseller did at a time past to wit on the first day of December in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two at Boston aforesaid with force and arms print and publish a certain book entitled "A Memoir of Felix Neff Pastor of the High Alps" the said

Hyde then and there not having acquired the Copyright thereof and did then and there falsely insert and impress in said book that the same had been "entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1832 by William Hyde & Co in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts" against the law, peace and dignity of the United States and contrary to the form of the statute of the United States in such cause made and provided by reason whereof and by the force of said statute the said William Hyde has forfeited and become liable to pay the sum of one hundred dollars, one moiety thereof to the person prosecuting for the same and the other to the use of the United States. And the said Attorney of the United States gives the said Court to understand and be informed that the United States by their said Attorney do first prosecute for the same wherefore the said Attorney prays advisement of the Court herein the premises and for the proper process to the end that the said penalty or forfeiture may be recovered by the said United States of him the said Hyde.
